Members of Independent Order of Odd Fellows Hear Talks by Number of Visiting High Officials.

For the purpose of uniting the various branches and organizations of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and preaching the rule of "fellowship", Grand Master W. M. Nauer of Vernon spoke at meetings held Wednesday afternoon and night in South Bend. He was assisted by Grand Patriarch S. O. Sharp of Indianapolis.

Indifference in lodge work was the theme of Nauer's address. He said that all Odd Fellows should belong to every branch of the order and that in order to have this to come about a keener spirit of fellowship was necessary in the ranks of the lodge. Grand Patriarch Sharp also spoke along the same lines. Other men who made addresses were district deputy patriarchs, Elmer Jones, South Bend; J. D. Pout, Knox; W. J. Anderson, Valparaiso; N. A. McLoughlin, Plymouth; G. C. Sherwood, Valparaiso; P. W. Clarke, Laporte; L. W. Dame, Gary, and G. L. Minnix, Elkhart.

Beyers, a district deputy grand master of the lodge, of South Bend, addressed the members. That the officers and the deputy grand masters all over the state should combine and work for a common fellowship in the order, was the theme of all the talks. Other deputy grand masters who spoke were W. B. Hill, Elkhart; N. E. Jones, Crown Point; Ben Levy, Laporte; J. P. Orr, Bourbon; H. W. Abbott, Wheeler; D. E. Newell, Knox.

Jelly Roll Recipe

Only Two Eggs Required

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

This Jelly Roll is fast becoming very popular on account of the way it keeps fresh. With proper handling it should keep fresh a whole week, providing it isn't eaten up in the meantime, for it is every bit as good as it looks.

K C Jelly Roll

One cup sifted flour; scant half teaspoonful salt; 2 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; graded rind of 1 lemon; 2 eggs; beaten light; 1 cup sugar; 1/2 cup hot milk; glass of jelly; powdered sugar.

Beat the sugar into the eggs; add the lemon rind, then the flour, sifted three times with the salt and baking powder; and, lastly, the milk. Bake in a buttered dripping pan; turn out on a damp cloth, trim off the crisp edges; spread with jelly and turn over and over into a roll while still warm. Dredge the top with powdered sugar.

Hot milk used in the jelly roll enables it to be rolled without danger of cracking. Have the milk scalding hot, also be careful to have the eggs and sugar beaten together until very light and creamy. Bake in a moderate oven.

K C Jelly Roll is illustrated on page thirty-two of the new and handsomely illustrated 64-page K C Cook's Book, which may be secured free by sending the certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder to the JACOBS MFG. CO., Chicago, Ill.

SCRAMBLE WHEN LETTERS ARRIVE

Miss Louise Farris of Princeton Engaged to Fifty Men at Same Time.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 18.—Martin W. Farris of Princeton, Ind., who with his wife and daughters, Louise and Ora, were indicted here upon a charge of misusing the mails in operating a matrimonial bureau Wednesday, told Judge A. B. Anderson in the federal court that his daughter Louise alone was responsible for what Charles W. Miller, district attorney, characterized as one of the biggest matrimonial swindles operated in this country. Farris and his wife appeared in court Wednesday and withdrew their plea of not guilty and entered a plea of guilty, which they withdrew after Mr. Miller had outlined the government's case.

Miss Louise pleaded guilty to the charges when arraigned Tuesday, but she has not been sentenced. Miss Ora has not been arraigned.

Mr. Miller in outlining the government's case declared that the plan of the swindle was for Louise to write letters to men who wished to marry her. Mrs. Farris mailed the letters, he said. Ora warned away prospective bridegrooms and if they became insistent the father threatened them. Five of the men who had proposed to Louise, arrived at Princeton at the same time, Mr. Miller said, and at one time she was engaged to 50 men. One of the victims who sent Louise $100 was a prominent pugilist, the district attorney asserted.

According to Mr. Miller there always was a scramble at the Farris home when packages of letters arrived and the first member of the family to open a package or letter kept its contents. He said that Miss Ora withdrew from the scheme after writing one letter and tried to persuade the other members of the family to do so.
